Aspen Logistics Names Dawn Yeats as their New Controller

Temecula, California, 08.20.10 – Aspen Logistics, Inc. announces that its new Controller will be Dawn Yeats. Dawn will head Aspen's Finance Department located at their corporate headquarters in Temecula California. She will be tasked in keeping Aspen profitable while also providing their customers the best possible value in today's extremely competitive market place. The company feels that they could not have selected a better person for the position. Aspen points to Dawn's logistics acumen, experience within Aspen, and driven business ethic as being the right chemistry for the position.

Aspen made their selection after vetting through potential candidates and felt that Dawn is the perfect fit for their business strategy. Dawn has already been an incredible asset to the Aspen organization. She began working at Aspen in 2007 as a Finance Manager. Prior to Aspen, Dawn served in the U.S. Marine Corps. She entered the Corps as an Electronics Technician and worked her way to Sergeant. Dawn feels that her military experience sharpened her technical, supervisory, and management skills. Her time in the service also gave her confidence in her abilities and decision making. She has worked in all areas of accounting and has acquired her MBA. After the service Dawn worked for the banking industry, private firms, and a large corporation, before eventually ending up at Aspen. Dawn enjoys an active lifestyle. She spends her free time outdoors at her home in Southern California. She and her husband enjoy volunteering and spending time with their two children. Dawn looks forward to the new challenges and opportunities within Aspen and is ready to make a great impact on the company's continued success.
